

Woodward & Lothrop

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Following our annual custom, beginning to-day, June 29, store will be closed at 5 o'clock.

Garments, Materials, and Articles for Summer Use.

WE are showing attractive stocks of garments, materials, and articles for summer use, including many items of special interest to those arranging for journeys abroad, touring and vacation trips generally. Among these may be mentioned:

Women's White Linen, Duck, Pongee, and Silk Coats; Coat Suits of Linen, Veiling, Voile, Mohair, Taffeta, Panama, and White and Blue Serges; Jumper Suits, English Rep Suits, Lingerie Dresses, Tailor-made and Lingerie Shirt Waists, Rain Coats, Auto Coats, Traveling Coats, Gloria Coats, Separate Skirts, Bathing Suits, Caps, and Shoes.

Men's Two and Three Piece Suits, Trousers, Fancy Vests, Bathing Suits, Automobile Garments, Pajamas, and Night Shirts, Thin Underwear, Thin Hosiery, Negligé Shirts, Wash Ties, Belts, Hats, and Caps. Luncheon Cases of Wicker, for automobiling and touring use, fitted for cold tea or cold lunch, with accommodations for two, four, and six persons.

Summer Outdoor Games, Hammocks, Swings, Baseball Goods, Croquet Sets, Tennis Goods, Kodaks and Cameras, Flags, &c.

Traveling Requisites, including every proper sort for a day's outing or an extended tour—Handbags, Telescope Cases, Canvas Carryalls, Kit Bags, Suit Cases, Men's Hat Boxes, Trunks (of every description), Drinking Cups, Shawl Straps, Traveling Shawls or Steamer Rugs, &c.

Hair Brushes, of ebony and other woods; Cloth and Bath Brushes; Bath and Cup Sponges; Atomizers, Manicure Sets and Separate Pieces, Hand and Standing Mirrors, Extracts, Toilet Waters, Colognes, Soaps, Rubber Toilet Articles, &c.

Dress Goods Department

(Second Floor, G Street.)

SEVERAL thousand yards more of beautiful Printed Silk Muslins About Half Price.

Half silk and half cotton. A very dainty and beautiful material, suitable for evening, street, and general summer wear. It has woven silk dots and figures, with handsome floral printings; also printed dots, rings, and figures, in various attractive effects.

This is an ideal summer dress material and offered at the Special Price, 15c the Yard.

Regular Prices, 25c and 37½c.

Second floor—G st.

China and Cut Glass for June Wedding Gifts.

THE selection of artistic and characteristic Wedding Gifts is an art. Many people find it a tiresome task to find a gift that meets their wishes as to individuality and artistic merit. At this season of the year, in particular, we assemble here the most elaborate collection of beautiful things and exclusive wares that meet these particular requirements most admirably. We extend the invitation to all who have wedding gifts to buy to come and look through our Art Wares Salon and among the beautiful Chinaware and fine Glassware, with the assurance that the search for appropriate and distinctive Wedding Gifts will be most pleasantly facilitated.

Good, Wholesome Reading For Summer Days.

A CHOICE collection of Paper-covered Books, all well bound, sewed—not put together with wire staples—good type and paper, and good reading.

The lot includes about one hundred titles from four noted publishers whose paper-covered books, at one time selling for 50c, were a synonym for everything good, but every one of them has since abandoned the paper-covered book.

Special Price, 20c Each; or 6 Volumes for $1.00.

We mention a few titles:

Lady Eleanore, by J. C. Smith, a romance of the sixteenth century, having for a heroine a beautiful woman.
The Lost Stradivarius, by J. Meade Falkner; a story of music and musical happenings.
His Majesty's Greatest Subject, by S. S. Thoburn; a story of British Dominion in India.

Don Braillo, a Spanish love story, by Juan Valera, translated by Clara Bell.
In Low Relief, by Morley Roberts; a Bohemian transcript of our own times.
A Fiery Ordeal, by Tasma; a tragic story of Australian bush life.
In the Year of Jubilee, by George Gissing; a society novel of great force.
La Bella and Others; a collection of short stories by Egerton Castle.
Etelka's Vow, by Dorothea Gerard; a story of the Austrian mountains.
The Petrie Estate, by Helen D. Brown; a love story of the older sort.
Poor People, by I. K. Friedman; a story of comedy and tragedy in the tenements.

The Heiress of the Season, by Sir William Magan; a stirring love tale.
A Passionate Pilgrim, by Percy White; a modern love story.
Gibaldi, or the Curse of Love, by Ross George Derling; a modern love story.
Smith Brunt, by W. K. Post; a story of the old navy.
A Soulless Singer, by Mary C. Lee; a story of modern times.

And many others.

20c Each; 6 for $1.00.

Main floor—Tenth st.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Washington Society Well Represented at Races.

Guests Include Chances—Ambassador to France and Mrs. White Linger in London After Attending Wedding of Miss Reid to Hon. John Ward, Senator and Mrs. Wetmore Sail.

The boat races at New London were quite the objective point last week for leaders in Washington society. Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, and the President's three youngest sons went there on the government yacht Mayflower, in command of Lieut. Commander Snowden, and were joined off New London by several other government yachts with parties of officials, making an interesting reunion. Among them were the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Truman H. Newberry, Miss Carol Newberry, the Newberry twins, and Miss Sadie Murray, daughter of Gen. Murray, who is the guest of the Newberry's in their summer home at Watch Hill, R. I., all on the Siph. Lieut. Roger Williams command; the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert Bacon, whose son, E. C. Bacon, was No. 6 in the Harvard 'varsity eight; Miss Martha Bacon, and Miss Emily Bacon, her cousin, who were on the dispatch boat, and Mr. and Mrs. William Phelps Eno, on their yacht Aquillo, of the New York Yacht Club. All of these parties stayed at or near New London during the two days of the races, and some of the parties remained through the most of the week for the attending festivities.

The British Ambassador and Mrs. James Bryce have arrived in Stockholm, Mass., and were among the distinguished guests at a tea given in Lenox by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dixey, of Boston, in their summer home. Former Ambassador to Great Britain and Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Jr., Mrs. Draper, wife of the former Ambassador to Italy; Miss Draper, Mrs. George Westinghouse, and a number of others prominent in Washington society were among the guests. It was an all fresco tea, and the tables were laid in the garden, where the roses and other spring blossoms were in full bloom, making one of the prettiest and most picturesque parties of the season.

The United States Ambassador to France and Mrs. Henry White are lingering in London, having gone over there for the wedding of Miss Jean Reid to Hon. John Hubert Ward last Tuesday. Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan has placed Dover House, his residence in the suburbs of London, at their disposal, and they are renewing old friendships made during the days when the Ambassador was a secretary of the embassy in London.

The United States Ambassador and Mrs. Reid have taken possession of West Park, their summer home in England, where they will entertain a house party each week-end, a very special one next Saturday and Sunday to celebrate the American Fourth of July.

Mrs. John Ridgely Carter and her daughter Mildred, wife and daughter of the first secretary of the embassy in London, and the Misses Kate and Helen Brice, daughters of the late Senator Brice, former leaders of the smart set in this city, were among their house guests over last week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Reid have invited a party for dinner on July 7 for the American brothers now in London for the international conference.

The American consul general to London and Mrs. Wynne of this city, have returned to London from a visit to St. Petersburg, a trip they took because of the health of Mr. Wynne, which has been greatly benefited by his recreation.

Col. John P. Wisner, military attaché of the American Embassy in Berlin, has returned to the embassy from a unique trip taken with his two sons. They went for a week's walk through the giant mountains of Silesia, one of the most interesting and picturesque journeys imaginable.

Mr. Robert Winthrop, of New York, recently appointed first secretary to the American Embassy in Rome, has been in Paris visiting and is now in London, where he will remain for a short time before sailing for this country for a vacation.

The third secretary of the French Embassy in this city and the Viscountess de Martel, who has remained quite late in Washington this year, will leave this week for their home in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Melville E. Church have closed their city home, and last week opened their summer cottage at Ocean City, Md. The marriage of Mrs. Helen Durant Church to Mr. Yearley, Jr., of Baltimore, will take place in the fall, the engagement having been announced in the early spring. The Yearleys and the Churches have had cottages at Ocean City almost since the opening of that resort.

Senator and Mrs. Wetmore, the Misses Wetmore and young Mr. Wetmore, sailed on Saturday for Europe.

Lieut. Commander and Mrs. E. S. Kellogg entertained at dinner on Saturday night at the torpedo station at Newport in honor of Lieut. Commander Mark Bristol, commander of the station, and his bride.

Lieut. Commander de Blampre, naval attaché of the French Embassy in this city, has arrived in Newport at the La Farge Cottage, where he will spend some time.

Mr. Walter Hague has joined his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hague, of this city, in their Newport cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane E. Fox, of this city, have opened their cottage at Ocean City, Md., where they will remain until late in September.

The United States Minister to Ecuador and Mrs. Williams H. Fox, who had expected to leave for that country, have been delayed.

PRIZES AND TROPHIES for all outdoor contests—Loving Cups of every size and cost, Tankards, Vases, Punch Bowls, &c.

When Quality is considered, our Prices are always THE LOWEST.

GALT & BRO.,
Established Over a Century
Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,
1107 Penna. Ave.

pected to return to this country for a visit this month, have postponed it for another month. They have made plans for a royal celebration of the Fourth of July in the garden there.

Mrs. Isham Hornsby will close her home, in I street, this week, and go to the White Sulphur Springs for the remainder of the season.

The marriage is announced of Miss Linda C. Esch, of this city, to Lieut. Albert Palm Hahn, of Oberlin, Ohio, which will take place on May 20 in the German home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Piese, of Marienthal, Germany, with whom the bride has spent the past year. Rev. Father Ludwig, of Marienthal, officiated, and the ceremony was followed by a nuptial mass. The bride is a daughter of the late Michael Esch, of this city, and she has spent much time with her other sister, Mrs. E. L. Schneider, in this city.

Arrangements are now being made in England for the marriage of Mr. George Westinghouse, Jr., and Miss Violet Brocklebank, of England, which will take place in the British home of the bride's parents early in the fall. The engagement was announced last summer after a visit the bride-elect made to Mrs. Westinghouse's summer place, Erskine Park, at Lenox. The young people have known each other since childhood, and the parents of both are much pleased at the approaching nuptials.

Mrs. Robert Hollister Chapman, who returned recently from Atlantic City, has closed her home in Q street and left town to join Mr. Chapman in West Virginia.

Washington arrivals at the Hotel Plaza in New York on Friday included Mrs. Alexander Stewart, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Mary Stewart, Mrs. John M. Hudgens, and Master John Hudgens. The coolest place in New York is the Plaza Summer Garden, which always has a fresh breeze blowing down from Central Park, and it is a notably smart place in which to dine.

Mr. J. Stanton Brower, who has been visiting relatives in Washington during the last two weeks, has returned to his home in New York.

THE KAISER'S ISLAND HOME.

Wilhelm Possesses Villa of Late Empress of Austria.

From Harper's Weekly.
The Villa Achilleon, in Corfu, deserted thirteen years before her death by its former owner, the late Empress of Austria, and now in the possession of the German Emperor, is well adapted to the island life. If not, it might be, considering the fact that the Kaiser bought it for $200,000 only, it is said the property had cost the Emperor what he created it at the very least $35,000,000.

The villa occupies the summit of a rock that overlooks the sea, and is surrounded by a peristyle of a dozen marble columns, at the base of each of which there stands a piece of ancient statuary. Indoors a massive staircase gives access to the private and reception rooms, of which, all told, the palace boasts of no less than 128. There are, besides, an up-to-date gymnasium, a bathroom having in its center a white marble basin set into the floor, and a Byzantine chapel rich in treasures from old seaport cities of the Mediterranean.

Upon the terrace, bushes to the number of 2,500 bloom with roses of all kinds that, owing to the equable climate, flower constantly and perfume the air. Beyond this rose jungle there lies the park with African palms, tropical shrubs, and native trees. Here, too, is a diminutive Greek temple, and again, upon descending by a narrow staircase to the sea, the visitor will find, perched on the rock, another and yet smaller temple having a monument to Helene, the favorite poet of the late Empress.

Shortly before her death, the Empress, feeling to secure a purchaser for Achilleon, caused it to be dismantled of her personal treasures, and these conveyed to the castle of Laing. Since he came into possession the Kaiser has effected considerable alterations and additions. The private apartments of the imperial family have been entirely renovated in the Empire style. To preserve symmetry there has been built for the accommodation of the suite an annex with additional rooms for the domestics. An artesian well sunk in the park supplies good drinking water. Garages and stables have also sprung into existence with the new regime.

BLAKE CHANGES MIND.

Opera Singer's Wrath Appeased by Words of Compliment.

From a lawyer's office, where he had completed arrangements to enter suit against a local clothing firm, to the position of tailor's model for the same company, is the rather unusual step taken by Harold Blake, actor and singer.

A Washington clothing establishment, in looking for a prominent stage celebrity to use as a mascot, hit upon a photograph of Harold Blake, a singer with the Aborn Opera Company at the National Theater. Blake was not consulted and the theater management gave its consent to the use of his name.

Blake did not object to the scheme until it was too late to prevent an amount of advertising, but the moment he saw his face over a 1908 model suit of clothes, he wrote the firm a letter forbidding the use of his name for publicity purposes. From all accounts, no attention was paid the letter, the firm preferring to look upon it as a joke.

Blake retained a prominent attorney in Chicago, and prepared to sue the firm for misuse of his name. Fearing Blake was laboring under a false idea, the clothing merchants sent him a complimentary letter. Blake thereupon withdrew his suit.

THE GRAMMAR CLASS.
From the Philippines Gossip.
The head mistress of a certain provincial school was one day examining a few of her select pupils in grammar.

"Stand up, Juan, and make me a sentence containing the word 'seldom,'" she said, pointing to a small urchin.

"I cannot, madam," he replied, then, with a flush of triumph on his face, replied: "Last week father had five horses, but yesterday he seldom!"

HAROLD BLAKE,
Actor who withdrew lawsuit to wear firm's clothes.

Advantage reports say the New York delegation is coming prepared to take the 1909 convention to their city. It is understood delegates from Portland, Me., and Chicago also desire the delegates to meet in their respective cities for the next convention.

The Teacher's Reward.
From the Pathfinder.
A school teacher after spending forty-five strenuous moments explaining the mysteries of physiology to the primary class sounded their intelligent attention by asking the definition of "vertebrae."

A small and anxious boy on the back seat arose and delivered the following:

"The vertebrae is a long, wavy bone. My head sits on one end of it and I sit on the other."

Neglige Shirts
—The season's newest patterns and designs.
You'll find them priced right.

TYSSOWSKI BROS.,
726 15th St.

UNION SOON TO MEET

Four Hundred Delegates to Convene Here This Week.

PROMINENT MEN AND WOMEN

They Will Come from All Parts of United States and Canada to Take Part in Sessions of Universalist Organizations—Superintendents Convene at Same Time in All Souls.

More than 400 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada will arrive here in the next few days to participate in the annual national convention of the Young People's Christian Union, which convenes at the Church of Our Father, Thirteenth and L streets northwest, on Wednesday. Many of the most prominent men and women of the Universalist Church and several of its well-known pulpits orators will make addresses.

But few of the out-of-town visitors had arrived in this city last night, but each train to-day, to-morrow, and Wednesday is expected to bring its quota. Special trains will arrive from Boston and New York on Wednesday, in time for the opening session.

In connection with the main convention, the National Council of Universalist Superintendents will be in session at the same time in the parish hall of All Souls' Unitarian Church, at Fourteenth and L streets northwest.

Plan Decided Upon.
The plan decided upon at the order of the convention is to hold all business meetings in the morning, and devote the afternoon sessions to the study of congresses. From Wednesday until Sunday the evenings will be devoted to platform meetings, and from Sunday until the close of the convocation, on July 8, the evenings will be given over to the delegates to make excursions.

Saturday being Independence Day, the delegates will take part in special patriotic services arranged.

Among the leading speakers who are scheduled to make addresses are Rev. Frank Oliver Hall, pastor of the Church of the Divine Paternity, New York, the largest Universalist church in the world; Rev. John Coleman Adams, of Hartford, Mass., and Rev. Clarence R. Skinner, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., nephew of Otis Skinner, the actor.

Probably the most energetic worker for the success of the cause is Miss Edna Keene Bushee, chairman of the local committee on arrangements. Miss Bushee is president of the local Y. P. C. U. and has charge of the summer outing work of the Associated Churches. The opening session on Wednesday evening will begin with a song service, followed by addresses of welcome by Commissioner H. B. F. Macfarland, of Rev. John W. Rugs, pastor of the Church of Our Father, and by the Universalist Church and of the convention, greetings will be presented by Rev. H. W. Rugs. After the several committees have been appointed, the meeting will be closed with the president's annual address by Harry Russell Childs, of New York.

Convention Organized.
At 9 o'clock Thursday morning the convention will be organized and reports of the various officers and standing committees submitted. Led by Frank M. Bradley, of Maine, the afternoon session will be opened at 2 o'clock with a "two-cents-a-week congress." A "post-office mission congress" will be conducted at 2 o'clock by Miss Elizabeth W. Bacon, of Illinois, and Mrs. Genevieve Bishop, of Illinois, will conduct a "Junior Union congress" at 4 o'clock.

"Our mission in the present crisis" will be the subject of an address to be delivered at the evening session by Rev. Clarence Skinner. Wade H. Barnes, president of the Pennsylvania State Union, will preside at this session.

Devotional services under the direction of William Cooper, of Massachusetts, will open Friday's session. Beginning at 9:15 o'clock, matters of routine business will be considered until the noon recess. Mission study congress will be discussed at the afternoon session, presided over by Miss Mary L. Ballot, of Massachusetts; Miss G. Bishop, and Rev. O. Howard Perkins, Rev. James D. Tillingshast will be the principal speaker at the evening session.

Consideration of the topic, "The Greatest thing in the world," will occupy the first session on Saturday. The election of national officers will also occur at this session. At 1 o'clock the patriotic services will be held, presided over by Prof. Arthur W. Pierce, of Massachusetts. After prayer has been offered by Rev. H. N. Couden, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, W. J. Ogden, of Baltimore, will make an address. A reception will be given the delegates that evening by Rev. Mr. Van Schaick at his residence, 1314 Vermont avenue.

On Sunday morning the delegates will attend the church service at the Church of Our Father, at which the "occasional" sermon will be preached by Rev. J. Coleman Adams. Celebration of communion and a consecration meeting will take place in the afternoon.

Childs to Preside.
Harry Russell Childs will preside at the mass meeting arranged for Sunday evening. Besides addresses by Rev. Frank O. Hall and Rev. Frederic W. Betts, an address entitled "The coming creed of Christendom" will be made by Rev. G. I. Keim, Indiana.

Monday the entire delegation will take a moonlight sail down the Potomac. Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to sightseeing trips by the visitors.

The headquarters of the delegates will be at the Dewey Hotel, in L street, near Fourteenth street northwest.

Advantage reports say the New York delegation is coming prepared to take the 1909 convention to their city. It is understood delegates from Portland, Me., and Chicago also desire the delegates to meet in their respective cities for the next convention.

The Teacher's Reward.
From the Pathfinder.
A school teacher after spending forty-five strenuous moments explaining the mysteries of physiology to the primary class sounded their intelligent attention by asking the definition of "vertebrae."

A small and anxious boy on the back seat arose and delivered the following:

"The vertebrae is a long, wavy bone. My head sits on one end of it and I sit on the other."

STRIKES AT THE SALOONS.

Rev. Dr. Spooner Denounces Liquor Men's Methods.

Saloons were declared the evils of the country last night at the fifteenth anniversary of the Anti-Saloon League of the District at the First Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Arthur Willis Spooner, D. D., pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian Church, well known in many parts of the country as an evangelist, declared the methods employed by saloonmen in fights against prohibition were unworthy of men. As an instance, he cited the methods used by brewers and saloonmen in Newark, N. J., on June 8 and 9 last, in their fight for open Sundays, when the following "dodger" was spread broadcast throughout the city:

Attention! All liberal citizens, vote for an open Sunday. What's the use of preserving the Lord's Day? What did God ever do for the brewers and saloon-keepers?

Rev. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and president of the Anti-Saloon League, opened the exercises with an address, giving a brief history of the work of the league and telling of the temperance movement in various parts of the country.

FLAG HAS 46 STARS

Ninety-two Women in Oklahoma Play Betsy Ross.

MADE FOR THE QUAKER CITY

New Emblem Will Be Broken Forth on Old Independence Hall in Philadelphia at Noon on Fourth of July. Made from Wool Grown in Newest State—Will Go Into Museum.

Who are, who are, who are we? Betsy Rosses, don't you see?

Guthrie, Okla., June 28.—With this "yell" the ninety-two Oklahoma women who made the flag which is to fast over Independence Hall in Philadelphia on July 4 entered the Oklahoma statehouse, and making their way to the governor's office, sang "America" with zeal and enthusiasm that would have made glad the heart of the original Betsy.

The "yell" will be heard in Philadelphia on July 4, when many of the Oklahoma women will attend the breaking forth of the first official flag of forty-six stars on the Independence Hall flagstaff.

The plan originated with the city council of Philadelphia, as not only a novel, but a patriotic means of celebrating the country's natal day. Immediately an invitation was extended to Oklahoma through George W. Alexander, of Philadelphia, who has charge of the matter as committee man, and when the invitation reached Oklahoma the annual commencement of the State G. A. R. was in session. When the Philadelphia plan was made known to them it was accepted forthwith, and a committee of veterans named to take charge of the Oklahoma end of the arrangements.

First Mayor Is Chairman.

Col. Thomas H. Seward, of Guthrie, was named chairman of this G. A. R. committee. He was the first mayor of Guthrie, and is a past department commander of the G. A. R. Associated with him on the arrangement committee are Judge Horace Townsend, of Ardmore; William H. Hornaday, of Lawton, also a past department commander of the G. A. R.; R. M. Conger, of Bristow, and William H. Querry, of Tulsa.

It was also at the suggestion of the Philadelphians that the flag, which should be made in Oklahoma for use on July 4, should be manufactured of Oklahoma-grown wool, dyed with Oklahoma dyes, spun and woven in an Oklahoma home mill, and made by an Oklahoma Betsy Ross.

Instead of having the flag made by one Betsy Ross, as suggested, it was decided to have ninety-two of them to serve on the ninety-two stars, forty-six on each side of the flag. The G. A. R. committee selected them from the principal cities and towns, with instructions to assemble in a hall or room to be named the flag. The body of the flag was then made by Mrs. Josephine Tidball, of Guthrie.

Includes Many Women.

In selecting the women to sew on the stars the committee made of the appointments a State-wide and nonpartisan affair, including a number of women of the Confederacy and of the Spanish-American war. One of the number—Mrs. V. J. Pettes, of Oklahoma City—is a daughter of the American Revolution. The oldest woman of the ninety-two to work on the flag was Mrs. Nancy Filson, aged seventy-five, of Guthrie, and the youngest person to assist in sewing on a star was little Miss Mary Gregory-McBride. The Oklahoma-made flag will be taken to Philadelphia by Col. Seward and escort, who will leave here on June 30. The Oklahoma school teachers, who will be attending the National Teachers' Association annual convention in Cleveland, will join the party also. In all, there will be several hundred Oklahomans in Philadelphia on July 4.

The making of the flag is raised over Independence Hall, the flag will be raised to every city and hamlet in Oklahoma, and immediately the people of the new state will begin singing simultaneously with the people of Philadelphia "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Will Be Put in Museum.

Following the Fourth of July celebration in Philadelphia, the Oklahoma flag will be placed in the Independence Hall museum, together with the names of the Oklahoma Betsy Rosses who made it. In its stead, Col. Seward will bring back to Oklahoma a flag which is now being made at the old Betsy Ross home, 238 Arch street, Philadelphia, and similar in every detail to the flag made by the Oklahoma women. It will be deposited either with the Oklahoma Historical Society or with the Betsy Ross Association of Oklahoma, an organization formed by the women who made the flag and their daughters, for the purpose of "teaching patriotism as exemplified by the first Betsy Rosses."

The president of the Betsy Rosses for the first year is Mrs. J. J. Brotherton, of Muskegon, and the vice presidents are Mrs. Mary B. Herod, of Guthrie; Mrs. A. Oliphant, of Tulsa, and Mrs. William J. Pettes, of Oklahoma City. Mrs. Anna B. Dodson, of Guthrie, is second secretary; Mrs. De Ross Bailey, of Muskegon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ida M. Ruby, of Ponca City, treasurer; Mrs. Edward M. Clark, of Pawnee, historian, and Mrs. L. Gertrude Sprout, of Enid.

The Envy of London Club Life.
From the Chicago Tribune.
In no city in the world are there so many clubs as in London. They are one of the essential factors in English fashionable, artistic, and political life. It is the home of the "gentleman," and we Italians have nothing whatever that can even compare with those useful and refined institutions.

The Finest Fabrics
—for Men's Summer Suits are offered in their own handsome effects at this establishment. Call and inspect them.

Lowest prices for THE BEST.
E. H. SNYDER & CO.,
TAILORS AND IMPORTERS, 1311 PA. AVE.

Store closed daily at 5:00 p. m.

—Confectioners—and Druggists—

Supplies For the 4th

WE ARE prepared to meet the smallest or the greatest requirements equally satisfactorily. Dependable goods exclusively—lowest consistent prices.

Ice Cream Freezers

For hand and power—all well-known makes, including

D. & M. FREEZERS
SEAMAN FREEZERS
WHITE MOUNTAIN FREEZERS
BALTIMORE FREEZERS

Miscellaneous Needs:

ICE CREAM CABINETS
ICE CREAM SAUCERS
ICE CREAM SPOONS
FRUIT BOWLS
ICE PICKS
ICE CRUSHERS
SODA GLASSES
GLASS HOLDERS
SQUEEZERS
STRAWS, &c.

Dulin & Martin Co.

Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, &c.

1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

The Largest Music House In the South.

E. DROOP & SONS CO.,
The Home of the Steinway Piano.
923-925 Pa. Ave. N. W.

CHINA'S SELF-WILLED GIRLS.

They're "Tz Yau No!" Because They Insist on Selecting Husbands.

The spirit of reform which is making a new China is affecting even the women, which means much, for they have been more secluded from the influence of Western ideas